Notes and Highlights

*669 American Colleges/Universities have had wrestling and dropped their programs.
 *48 U.S. States and Washington D.C. had schools drop wrestling programs.
 *Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Florida, Nevada, Alaska, and Hawaii have had programs, but dropped them and left their states without a single collegiate wrestling opportunity.
 *Alabama, Georgia and Washington have had multiple programs at all levels, but now have no four year collegiate chances to take part in wrestling.
 *Using the NCAA's average roster size of 27, the number of lost individual chances to compete collegiately are 18,063 nationwide.
 *Teams have been lost in seven different divisions: NCAA (I, II, III), NAIA, NJCAA, NCCAA and COA.
 *This list includes defunct and closed colleges. It does not list or intend to list twice the institutions that changed names over the years.
