MARINES.COM
Offense wins matches Defense keeps you on the mat.
On behalf of the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) Board of Directors and our president, Pat Popolizio, I want to extend a heartfelt thanks to everyone who makes the 2019 NWCA Multi-Divisional National Duals presented by The Marines & Defense Soap such a huge success. One exciting dual meet from each of the five collegiate divisions will be nationally televised on a two-week tape delay on Fox College Sports. Fox College Sports is also committed to re-broadcasting each of the 5 duals a minimum of 10 times, for a total of 50 national broadcasts to a potential viewership of 54 million homes each broadcast. Further, all dual meets will be web-streamed live on TrackWrestling. These two platforms provide us with an opportunity to tell the incredible “college wrestling renaissance” story to a huge audience beyond the wrestling community. It’s incredible to think that over 30 of the 84 teams in the event have been established just since 2008.

We are also forever grateful for the generous and ongoing support of Dave Dean and his organization NUWAY for being an outstanding host of this event. The event has moved to Louisville, Kentucky this year so many of the participating teams can benefit from the easy access to a major airport right next to the competition venue. Further, Kentucky represents a region where college wrestling has been growing rapidly (Kentucky Wesleyan and Midway University are the two most recent additions). We also want to thank the city of Louisville, Kentucky for hosting this event. The staff and community have been outstanding to work with.

We are also thankful for our two presenting partners The United States Marine Corps and Defense Soap. Of course, this event would not be possible without the support of our top wrestling programs. These teams endure very grueling seasons and it speaks volumes of their commitment to support the National Duals being that is so important to the long-term growth of our sport. Moreover, I would be remiss if I didn’t also acknowledge the ongoing support of Resilite (wrestling mats), InBody, Wrestlers in Business Network, Health o Meter and Pittsburgh Trophy for their tireless efforts to support our signature event.

In fact, high profile events such as the National Duals are essential to sustaining our success with strengthening our most vulnerable collegiate wrestling programs and also with adding new intercollegiate wrestling programs. Since 1999, the NWCA has helped to establish over 215 new intercollegiate wrestling programs and in recent years, we’ve been adding between 10 and 20 new teams annually in all collegiate divisions.

In closing, we hope everyone enjoys a terrific two days of wrestling. Collectively, we should all celebrate our sport’s heroes and champions at the NWCA Multi-Divisional National Duals and be thankful for the relentless efforts of so many wrestling stakeholders who are insuring a bright future for wrestling.

Sincerely,
Mike Moyer
Executive Director, NWCA
