The 2000-2001 NCAA II All-Academic Wrestling Team consists of 110 student-athletes from thirty four universities and colleges. Thirty four members were named to the first team, thirty four to the second team and forty two were named as honorable mention. The University of Nebraska-Omaha placed six members on the first and second teams and Fort Hays University placed five members. Minnesota State University-Mankato, Ashland University and West Liberty State College each placed four members.

Scott Antoniak from the University of Nebraska-Omaha, Matthew Johnson from Central Missouri State University and Derek Maynard from Gannon University were each named to the team for the fourth time. Fifteen student-athletes were named to the team for the third time. They include Steve Saxlund, Grady Wolfe and Bryan Muller from North Dakota State University; Ryan Butterbaugh and James Custred from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown; Marshall Hahn from the University of Northern Colorado; Paul Konechne from South Dakota State University; Brian Burzynski from Kutztown University; Dale Daugherty from Northern State University; T.J. Hellickson from Ashland University; Mack La Rock from the University of Nebraska-Omaha; Andy Mueller from the University of Wisconsin-Parkside; Jason Means from Central Missouri State University; Jody Trantham from Colorado School of Mines and David Vondy from Western State College of Colorado.

Two members of the All-Academic First Team were National Champions in 2000 and are seeking to repeat in 2001. They are Paul Konechne from South Dakota State University and Steve Saxlund from North Dakota State University. One member of the All-Academic Wrestling Team has a perfect 4.0 grade point average. Aaron Monseau, a sophomore from West Liberty State College majoring in pre-medicine has received all A's after five semesters of course work.

In order for a student-athlete to be nominated for the NCAA II All-Academic Wrestling Team, he needed to have a minimum 3.00 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale. He must also be in at least his second full year at his school, be a varsity member on his team or a key reserve, demonstrate a degree of skill, and have a minimum of two letters of recommendation (academic advisor and coach) submitted on his behalf.

Fort Hays State University recorded the highest team grade point average (GPA) in the eighth annual NCAA II All-Academic Wrestling Team selection and won the Academic National Championship. Fort Hays State University's GPA is the highest ever recorded. It topped the 3.330 that Minnesota State University-Mankato recorded last year. Fort Hays is the fifth school to win this prestigious competition. Other winners have been the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Truman State University, Colorado School of Mines and Minnesota State University-Mankato. The team GPA is calculated by averaging the cumulative grade point averages of ten wrestlers from each team of which eight of those wrestlers must have competed in their team's NCAA II National qualifying tournament.
